Rev. H. H. Stetson preached his farewell sermon in the Baptist church of Ludlow last Sunday and begins his new duties in Brockton, Mass., March 2.

James C. Healy of Barton, a carpenter, has filed a petition in bankruptcy. He has liabilities of $495.60 and assets of $200, all of which is claimed exempt.

Eight hundred cows have been pledged for a milk plant to be established at the Orwell station, 40 farmers meeting the first of the week to discuss the matter.

Green Mountain Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F., the oldest Odd Fellow lodge in Vermont, celebrated the 74th anniversary of its organization in Burlington Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Sanders observed the 60th anniversary of their marriage at their home in Brandon Feb. 22. Mr. Sanders is 78 years old and his wife 72 years old.

Mrs. Lydia Austin of Poultney, 78, and who has been totally blind for 30 years, has completed for the soldiers her 100th pair of socks, 15 sweaters, eight scarfs and 12 pairs of wristlets.

Kimball Tift was badly burned a few days ago as he was filling the water tank of a truck belonging to a Dorset firm with boiling water. The funnel slipped and the boiling water came onto his left arm.

The highway between St. Johnsbury and Wells River is now impassable for automobiles for the first time this winter. In the storm of Saturday night and Sunday, about 14 inches of snow fell and this has drifted badly in places. At Newport, about 20 inches of snow fell.

Opening a door into the cellar, instead of into the pantry, as she supposed, Mrs. Robert Allen of Rutland fell down the cellar stairs in a house she was looking over with a possibility of renting it. She has a fractured knee and is at the Rutland hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Christopher M. Amadon observed the 50th anniversary of their marriage at their home in Pownal Feb. 24, with a neighborhood gathering. Both are natives of Pownal, have always lived there and for the 50 years of their marriage have always lived in the same house. Mr. and Mrs. Amadon have three sons, all of whom, with their families, were present at the anniversary celebration.

Everett E. Stockwell, employed at the Connecticut River Power company's plant in Vernon, was badly burned a few days ago when trying to start one of the generators. It is supposed that he opened a switch of a live generator, causing a short circuit. He was burned about the face, his hair was burned off, the palms of both hands were burned and both eyes are closed by the swelling of his face, but the sight was not destroyed.

A man who represented himself as a general in the French army, by the name of George Melville Boynton, appeared in Bellows Falls Monday to solicit funds for a home for disabled soldiers, to be built in Louisiana. N. H. Boynton's scheme was to lecture in picture houses through the state, and he claimed to have taken $108 at Claremont, N. H., and $33 at Windsor. He said he was a member of the French army, participated in the battle of the Marne and March 2, 1915, was transferred to East Africa as a member of the Royal Fusiliers. After distributing circulars about Bellows Falls, advertising his lecture at the picture houses, the police interviewed him and, not being satisfied with his credentials, he was asked to leave town, which he did. It was also learned that in other places he had not been allowed to operate, one of them being Louisiana, where his visionary home for soldiers was to be located.
